Heaven: A Restored Place for Redeem

Recently, I have become intrigued by the question of what happens after death. As I have studied, my own understanding of what awaits God's children has grown. The truth is very clear. This life is very important, but it is only the prelude to the life to come. His children. I invite you to join me as we consider what the Bible says about heaven and all that awaits us beyond our present life on earth.
