AN ALMOST MONTHLY PUBLICATION FOR KRBC SENIOR ADULTS
OCTOBER EDITION 2009

Greetings Prime Timers.

It is now October. The heat of summer is behind us and I am enjoying the cooler air. Yesterday Chris asked about getting a pumpkin and corn stalks for the porch. That's an easy question, and yes that's what we'll do this weekend. But most of you will understand the work involved in this simple display: dead annuals will be removed; burned-out hosta will be cut down; weeds will be pulled; cobwebs broomed away, and mulch will get a fresh turn. The mums, pumpkins and seasonal props never disappoint. They help us feel all warm and fuzzy, we love this season! And then the leaves fall and we're outside working once more, worrying if we've done enough to prepare.

The church squirrels have also been very busy this week scurrying through the gutters, playing on the roof, and digging for hidden treasure. This one stopped outside my window today to see what I was doing. We stared each other down for a moment, and then with a quick flit of his tail he seemed to say, "You're not so important. Quit worrying. Look at me, I have no cares. Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more important than food, and the body more important than clothes? Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they? Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life (Matthew 6:25-27)? So get over yourself and trust God!"

Well, thanks Mr. Squirrel, so noted. Perhaps you're preparing for change. Maybe life has presented you with a new set of worries. Remember, God is bigger. Just ask a squirrel. As you read through this paper be looking for opportunities to serve, gather with friends, meet new people, and understand God's purpose for this great chapter of your life.

- Don't squat with your spurs on.
- Good judgment comes from experience, and a lot of that comes from bad judgment.
- Lettin' the cat outta the bag is a whole lot easier 'n puttin' it back in.
- If you're ridin' ahead of the herd, take a look back every now and then to make sure it's still there.
- If you get to thinkin' you're a person of some influence, try orderin' somebody else's dog around.
- Never kick a cow chip on a hot day.
- There's two theories to arguin' with a woman. Neither one works.
- If you find yourself in a hole, the first thing to do is stop diggin'.
- Never slap a man who's chewin' tobacco.
- Always drink upstream from the herd.
- The quickest way to double your money is to fold it over and put it back in your pocket.
- Never miss a good chance to shut up.
